DEDICATION

Ten years has shown a great deal of improvement in our school; in curriculum, educational facilities, and landscaping. Only ten years ago, on November 29, 1939, Baldwin High School was dedicated in a speech of presentation by Mrs. Anna P. Williams. Today we have one of the most modern and best equipped schools in the district. During the first year of use, there was no senior class, no auditorium or cafeteria, and very few books in the library; the grounds were a sea of mud and the parking lot was only a figment of the imagination. Throughout these ten years our records show nothing but advancement and striving for the highest of ideals.

To all those people who claim Baldwin High their Alma Mater we proudly dedicate this Balthi for nineteen hundred and fifty.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Through the ten short years of Baldwin's existence many have been led by a willing mind and helping hand to their ultimate goal. May the efforts of our administrators never be forgotten, and may our successes be their reward.

The School Board

The financial and executive departments of our school's organization are guided by the School Board. It is their responsibility to plan the budget for the following year, to order textbooks, to hire employees and aid in the selection of teachers. Plans are now being made for the expansion and improvement of elementary school facilities.

WARREN R. MALEY

Supervising Principal

Mr. Maley has been associated with the schools in Baldwin Township for fourteen years. He was the principal of Union School in 1936 and 1937. Because of overcrowded conditions, ninth grade classes were organized in the McGibbeny School. Mr. Maley was assigned to one of these classes in 1938. When the high school was completed in 1939, he gained the position as principal which he held until 1946. Mr. Maley is now the supervising principal of the Baldwin Township School District and sees that the organization runs smoothly.

WILBERT C. BRANDTONIES
Principal

Mr. Brandtonies came to Baldwin Township in 1938, when the high school was but an object of the architect's imagination. The lower floor of the McGibbeny elementary school was at that time the temporary high school and Mr. Brandtonies was one of the three ninth grade teachers. When the high school was completed in 1939 he was given charge of the biology department and in 1942 became assistant principal under Mr. Maley. In the course of four years Mr. Brandtonies was advanced to principal of Baldwin High School, which is the position he holds today. He advises in the selection of teachers and textbooks, and has charge of deciding the disciplinary measures for the school. Mr. Brandtonies has always been interested in the work and problems of each student.

ELMER J. McGIBBENY
Assistant Principal

Mr. McGibbeny is an original member of the Baldwin High School faculty. He was an elementary school principal prior to 1939 when he came to Baldwin to become a member of the mathematics department. His classes in this line have varied from first year algebra to solid geometry and trigonometry. Mr. McGibbeny became assistant principal in 1946 and has charge of checking attendance, issuing excuses, arranging bus schedules and supervising the loading of the buses. His crowded attendance office is a traditional scene each morning. Mr. McGibbeny assumes the duties of the principal when Mr. Brandtonies is away.

SECRETARIES

The school secretaries, Mrs. Boni and Mrs. Simmons, are responsible for preparing the student schedule cards and typing exams. Their office duties include: keeping the student file accurate, answering calls and typing various forms for Mr. Maley and Mr. Brandtonies.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Remember

Now that graduation day is rolling near, we, the class of '50, find ourselves having memories—some happy, some funny, some sad. More and more we find ourselves turning to each other and saying, "Remember . . . .

Remember how bewildered we were on our first day at Baldwin? How we never could find the rooms we were supposed to be in?

Remember how we paired off into separate cliques? How we all had crushes?

Remember when Dee Conley, Joanne Driscoll and Kathy Garman were in the eighth grade play? How seriously they took their parts?

Remember when Mr. Schricker and the others returned from the service?

Remember how the students from other schools joined our class in the ninth grade?

Remember our first taste of Latin? Amo, amas, amat —I love, you love, he loves—the eternal triangle?

Remember Mr. Jesko taking Mr. Wilkinson's place, as varsity basketball coach?

Remember the girls' sewing classes? And the blouses we made?

Remember our Freshman Party in the gym? How the boys stayed at one end of the floor and the girls at the other?

Remember those dancing classes? And how all the girls wanted to dance with Domenic Mattei? And how the tall girls danced with the short boys?

Remember when the five girls and five boys broke the door at Pleasant Hills School and the five girls had to pay for it?

Remember when we became sophomores and how we sighed when those big senior football players walked by?

Remember Dr. Hathaway's interpretation of SILAS MARNER?

Remember how the snow fell one year, and the busses couldn't make it? How we'd listen over the radio hoping they would announce no school for Baldwin? And all the visits to Mr. McGibbeny's office for those pink excuses?

Remember when the Writers Club, Biology Club, and Tumbling Team were formed?

Remember when Don Lutch, Pee Wee Benz, and Tom Shepherd sang that Hawaiian song, with motions, in room 134? How Nick Hartman almost fell out of his seat laughing?

Remember when the white mice escaped from Mrs. Deer's room? How they ate everything in the cafeteria?

Remember how proud we were of the fellows in our class who played first string football and basketball before their senior year?

Remember the ice cream battle Bob Shaner had in the cafeteria?

Remember when we became juniors? And how we would say, 'Me, a junior already; next year I'll graduate!'?

Remember our daily laughs in Mr. Mixie's history class? And his tests? And how different he looked in his dark blue suit?

Remember when Spanish came to Baldwin through popular demand? And how Mr. Jesko would speak in Spanish and it would go in one ear and out the other?

Remember when we thought the teachers were all so-and sos for giving us so much homework? And how we've discovered that they're really good sports?

Remember when the popular question was, 'Who's Miss Hush'?

Remember the Junior Class Party at Totem Pole Lodge? And what a beautiful group of girls Orrin Benz, Bob Shaner, Johnny Butler, Jack Lype, and Bud Mahoney made?

Remember the fad of blowing plastic bubbles?

Remember the gymnastic show? And what a variety of talent we had? And the Junior Class Play? How the telephone booth almost fell over?

Remember the water pistols?

Remember when Ann Hutchinson won the award for architectural drawing?

Remember when our senior friends graduated and gave us the class key? How Don Lutch was embarrassed to be dressed in a white shirt, tie and suit, while his pals were wearing T-shirts and jeans?

Remember football camp? How someone dressed up like Mr. Eureka, disguised his voice, and scared the livin' daylights out of the green members of the football team? And how the boys had such odd pets as frogs and snakes? And how they had such an attraction for water?

Remember how excited everyone was to know who was on the Balthi Staff? And the Balthi Bounce? And how thrilled we all were to have such a celebrity as Pee Wee Hunt here?

Remember our wonderful football season and how we won the Triadic Cup for the first time?

Remember when an underclassman slept all through our Spanish class until the bell rang? And the surprised expression on his face when he woke up?

Remember how proficient some of us became with a yo-yo?

Remember when Miss Smith was our grade school teacher? And how she treated us like grown-ups when we became seniors?

Remember when John Albert and Betty Ersher were on Wilkin's Amateur Hour? How everyone tuned in to hear them?

Remember the last day Mr. Harrison taught chemistry and several girls cried?

Remember the cheerleaders, Dee, Eileen, Joan, Mary Lou, Ceil, and Mary Ann? And how they always pleaded with us to yell louder? How we finally did at the Brentwood game?

Remember how Carolyn went with Steve all through High School?

Remember the aptitude tests we took at Carnegie Tech? And how we saw squares and circles and triangles hours afterwards? And how hungry we were when the tests were over?

Remember dear old MACBETH?

Remember The Purbalite and the super Balthi? And voting for the class officers, the Senior Queen and her attendants?

Remember" . . . well, just remember all the fun we've had together, all our parties, and teachers, and most of all, remember each other. Next year, when school begins again, without us, let's pick up a phone and call our old friends we haven't seen since graduation and reminisce a little.

We may never walk the same halls again, hand-in-hand, or study MACBETH, or have the same school spirit at football games, but we'll always have memories from our class of 1950.

ACTIVITIES

The goal of every school is to create wholesome and conscientious individuals who are able to face a world of changes and turmoil without faltering. Through its varied activities Baldwin has done its job well, and made its contribution toward the future safety of the nation and the welfare of mankind.

The Band

Under the direction of Mr. McIlroy the Baldwin Band has grown from an organization of twenty-eight members to the present group of sixty-seven. It performs at the football games and begins practice early in the year for the Mid-Year Band Concert, which consists mostly of jazz, jive, and popular pieces. The band also takes part in the Spring Music Festival. Each member has a personal interest in its work and development. Stiff requirements in order to obtain emblems and hash marks have given the group, as a whole, a more orderly and disciplined appearance. Baldwin has a band which everyone can be very proud of and it certainly deserves the credit we give it.

The Majorettes

Mr. McIlroy has set high standards for Baldwin's majorettes. The girls who hold these positions must make a good appearance, be dependable and should be capable of signaling the band for each formation. The new uniforms, featuring pill-box hats and purple and white skirts made a colorful spectacle as they performed their routines. These high steppers are now required to try out every year, which means there can be no idleness on their part if they wish to hold their positions.

The Highlanders

Several years ago a group was organized by Mr. McIlroy to represent the school symbol—the Highlander. A number of girls were chosen from seventh grade to portray Scotch lassies, and a boy was chosen to play the bagpipes; thus they were named the Highlanders. The girls this year executed accurately the dances taught them by Miss Pensom. They performed at the football games and the mid-year concert. After the girls have served two years they are automatically eliminated from the group. Tommy Timmons played the bagpipes this year. Since it is such a difficult job to train someone for this position, Mr. McIlroy hopes Tommy will keep playing the pipes until he graduates. For his first year on the job, Tommy has done commendable work. Baldwin can well be proud of the good work the Highlanders have done in representing our school.

Orchestra

Our Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. William J. McIlroy, is rapidly becoming an important organization in our school. When Mr. McIlroy first started teaching at the school, he organized an orchestra which had only a few members. Now there are thirty-five members, consisting of a few of the best from each instrumental section of the band, plus a string section of violins and cellos. The Orchestra usually plays more classical pieces than the Band and also participates in a greater number of formal occasions. It does play a few popular pieces, however, and performs them very well. It plays for nearly all the assemblies, the two class plays, Senior Class Day, special programs, and the commencement exercises. It supplies good music and is appreciated by everyone who hears its work. The Orchestra is an invaluable group and is gaining prominence with the passing of each year.

Cast: Eloise Baxter—Carolyn Estep; Dr. John Travis—Paul Liebman; Mrs. Myrta Hart—Kathie Garman; Edith Meadows—Margie Hartman; Kenneth Winchell—Charles Winterling; Mr. Grubb—Jim Perkins; Elnora Guilford—Carole White; Mrs. Prescott—Jean Wick; Gloria Prescott—Joyce Guy; Barbara Kilbourne—Ruth Edwards; Dolores Boyle—Adrienne Croft; Judy Handon—Margie Keener; Heman Slade—George Tsagaris; Mr. Traynor—Bob Brown; Mrs. Haver—Lois Werner; Mrs. Carpenter—Mary Ann Green; Orrin Bedell—Jim Smith.

Senior Class Play

Directed by Mrs. Shea, "Autumn Story" revolves around Eloise Baxter, an old maid type of person, and Elnora Guilford, an orphan who changes Eloise's whole life. Eloise, who realizes that she loves Dr. Travis, becomes more youthful-looking and does win him in the end. The two plan to adopt Elnora so the play draws to a pleasant close.

Junior Class Play

The Junior Class Play, under the direction of Mr. Trimble and assisted by Mrs. Shea, was presented November 15 to the students and November 16 to the parents. The story is about Penny Wood, a dramatic girl of fifteen who gets a crush on a college friend of her uncle's, Roger Van Bleck. He, however, makes a play for Julie Harris, Mervyn's girl, leaving Mervyn and Penny in the lurch. The story has a happy ending with Penny back with Chuck, her old faithful, Mervyn and Julie together, and Roger out in the cold.

Senior Mixed Chorus

This organization is open to boys and girls in the Senior High School who are interested in learning vocal technique while becoming acquainted with the best choral music.

Rehearsals are held daily during the first period, but when preparing for special performances the members of the chorus are the busiest students in the school. Wearing their purple robes, they take part regularly in assemblies for the Senior High as well as performing for the public in the Christmas program and the annual Spring Festival.

In the Christmas Program, which was presented as Christmas in Many Lands, their skillfully blended voices, together with those of other members of the music department, compliment-ed the beauty of the scenes. Some of the songs were sung in the native tongue of the country from which the scene was taken and added color to the entire program.

Triple Trio

The Triple Trio has become a permanent part of the music department since its organization several years ago. Performing for community functions and school affairs has developed the popularity of the group. This vear, Mr. Conner selected a number of substitutes who perform when the members of the original group are absent. Their pictures do not appear on this page but they include: Eileen Erskine, Dorothy Lyle, Pat McCormick, Sally Enkoff, Marilyn Bahde, Arlene Yoders and Nancy Wasney.

Senior Girls Chorus

This talented group of girls from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades is under the direction of Mr. Conner. They have provided pleasant entertainment at many assemblies throughout the year. At the presentation of the traditional Christmas Play, the chorus ably assisted with the musical background, adding much to the impressiveness of the play. When any special entertainment is needed, the girls chorus is willing to oblige. Credit should be given to this group for their tremendous strides in gaining perfection.

Junior Chorus

The Junior High School Chorus directed by Mr. Conner has taken an active part in Baldwin's music department this year. It has participated in the Junior High assemblies and the Spring Festival. The chorus is composed of seventh, eighth and ninth grade students and meets daily during the seventh period. The members of the chorus always look forward to the Spring Festival when they can display their talents and are in true competition with the senior choruses. Their work in assemblies and concerts has given them assurance and poise which prepares them for work in the senior music department.

The Balthi

The Balthi Staff is composed of students selected from the senior class. Under the direction of Miss Kirkland, they worked very hard all year, organizing and collecting material for the yearbook. The feature staff has been prying into the personal affairs of the seniors, trying to find snapshots or likes and dislikes of each one. Those on the activities staff collected names and facts about the different organizations in the school, while the sport staff ambitiously attended every game so that accurate accounts could be kept. The artists added personal touches here and there and the proof readers and typists were kept busy compiling the finished product. Last but far from least, the editors burned the midnight oil trying to assemble all the information. The Editorial Staff this year was: Editor—Carolyn Estep; Co-Editor—Jean Barton; Business Manager—Don Wilson; Features—Joan Wassel; Activities—Theresa Imbrogno; Sports—Tom Shepherd; Art—Bob Bowden; Typing—Martha Schwotzer.

The Purbalite

Betty Woods
Pat Yount
Carolyn Estep
Joan Stonic
Jim Perkins
Dick Davidson

The editor-in-chief of the Purbalite for this year was Pat Yount. The first page editor was Richard Davidson; second page, Carolyn Estep; third page, Joan Stonic and Jim Perkins; fourth page, Betty Woods. Each of these editors has his own group of reporters who gathers news for the paper. The editors then assemble and send it to the typists, Betty Lou Melani and Martha Schwotzer, who put the articles in good shape. Margie Hartman, the proof reader, checks it for errors before it is sent to the printer. The staff meets every other Tuesday with Miss Cornforth. The main purpose of the school newspaper is to develop and encourage writing ability in the students. Each member of the staff must spend many hours of his own time gathering and putting together the news items for the paper.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll is an organization for members of the Purbalite staff that have exceptional ability in journalism. These students have outstanding creative ability and are well qualified to continue in this field. Miss Cornforth is the sponsor of the group and Pat Yount was chosen as president. Writing stories and interviewing people are among their various activities. The meetings are held every third Thursday in room 223. They are certainly an indispensable part of our organizations.

Debating Society

The Debating Society consists of juniors and seniors who are interested in improving their public speaking. Under the direction of Miss Hathaway, they conduct debates in assemblies and in their meetings which are held after school every Friday. The officers were: Dick Davidson—president; Jim Perkins — vice-president; Dorothy Brnilovich—secretary; and Jean Wick—treasurer.

Student Senate

J. Motts, J. Smith, R. Hassenpflug, L. Jenson,
M. A. Green.

The Student Senate functions in order that the students at Baldwin High School might better know the working order of our democratic system. This group is composed of a representative and alternate elected each semester from every homeroom. Meetings called by the sponsor, Mrs. Deer, are held in room 124 to discuss student problems. The five members of the council are elected by the entire student body. Each must have had previous experience as a representative or alternate. The president this year was Richard Hassenpflug; vice-president, Jack Smith; secretary, Mary Ann Green; assistant secretary, LaRae Jenson; and treasurer, Jack Motts. The Student Senate has taken part in many activities, such as: sponsoring the Turkey Hop in November; helping plan the Brent-Car-Bal, which was held this year at Brentwood; handling the sale of tickets for the class plays; and presenting senior awards on Senior Class Day. The handbook, a student's guide to the activities of the school, is compiled every two years. Dick Davidson edited the pamphlet which will be distributed next September.

The National Honor Societies

The National Honor Society is an organization whose aim is to develop character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The Junior High honor students belong to the Starn Chapter, whose special duties are to change the show cases each week with projects made by the various classes. The Senior High honor students take charge of all the assemblies, planning them and introducing the speakers. The membership requirements of this society are very hard to meet and only the best students are eligible. The scholastic requirements demand two A's in major subjects and nothing less than a B in the others. Senior high members must participate in at least two authorized activities, while the junior high members score high on a character analysis.

Y-Teens

The Y-Teens, sponsored by Miss Rust, are composed of junior and senior girls who have a desire for fellowship and good times. For their officers this year, they chose the following girls: Dee Conley, President; Mary Ann Green, Vice-President; Mary Ann Timura, Secretary; Ruth Arch, Treasurer; Joan Lersch, Representative; and Jean Barton, Chaplain.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of Mr. Abrams and consisting of junior and senior boys, is a branch of the Y.M.C.A. On alternate Thursdays, a business meeting followed by recreation is held at the school.

Nick Hartman served as President, assisted by Dick Hassenpflug, Vice-President; Tom Wagner, Secretary; Bob Wilson, Treasurer; and Orrin Benz, Delegate.

Library Club

The Library Club is composed of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls interested in library work. The members give up their regularly scheduled study periods to serve in the library. This year La Verne Dryer was selected as president, Marilyn Brenckle as vice-president, and Delores Conley as secretary-treasurer. Under Miss Minetti's guidance they learn to prepare new books for the shelves, to make catalogue cards and to keep the lending files in order.

Secretarial Club

The Secretarial Service Club was organized by Miss Moser. Its main objective is to help the teachers by typing tests, grade sheets, and various letters. This work enables the girls to learn to type stencils and dittos. Through this early training they gain confidence in themselves when looking for a job. Another task performed by these girls is making and mimeographing programs that are needed for evening performances in the school.

Stage Crew

This small but helpful organization is made up of high school boys who are willing to cooperate with the activities of the school and who have the ability to construct properties for the stage. This group assists in the school's auditorium programs. Supervised by Mr. Sullivan, they take charge of the lighting system, handle the curtains and move the scenery. These boys certainly deserve credit for their time spent on the stage and their hard work.

Mr. Sullivan, A. Lorenzi, C. Tomala, A. Kaufman, B. Durkin.

Photography Club

The Photography Club, sponsored by Mr. Aiken, is a very active organization in our school. If you should be at a dance, or athletic game, or if you happen to be walking through the halls and see a blinding white flash, chances are it's one of The Kamera Klique on the job with his camera. They learn the principles and the fundamentals of photography and form a very great asset to our school.

Biology Club

The Biology Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Deer, was again kept busy cutting up! Sophomores must have an average of A or a very high B in biology in order to join the club. Meetings are held every other Tuesday in room 124. The officers are: president—Andy Spisak; vice-president—Carol Smiley; secretary—LaRae Jenson; treasurer—Eddie Burg; program chairman —Barbara Komlyn.

Chess Club

The Chess Club is an organization for any senior high school student interested in the game of chess. Students are not required to know the game before joining the club. The members not only receive instruction from Mr. Mixie, but also enjoy themselves while developing their skill. The better players have a chance to compete in tournaments. The Chess Club has been a very worth-while organization.

MEMBERS: L. Allen, E. Baudino, E. Boerio, G. Bragg, D. Conley, D. Davidson, J. Degenhardt, J. Driscoll, C. Durbin, D. Erdley, L. Fenstermaker, K. Garman, C. Gibson, M. A. Green, S. Hartay, J. SENIOR HIGH

One of the bright spots at Baldwin's football games were the purple and white clad cheerleaders. Their yells and pleas for cheers often told the team the students were behind them. Besides participating at the football games, they cheered for the Senior Varsity basketball team. Mr. Conner chose and sponsored these girls who practiced frequently after school.

JUNIOR HIGH

These peppy eighth and ninth grade girls lead the cheers at the Junior High basketball games. Any girl meeting the requirements may become a Junior High cheerleader but is automatically ineligible when she becomes a sophomore. Mr. Conner chooses these girls and gives any necessary aid they need in learning the cheers.

Leona Reid, co-captain; Deane Burchinal, Paula Sestak, Joyce Prickett, captain; Pat Fulton, Nancy Allen.

MEMBERS: O. Brinkerhoff, C. Dryer, P. Egede, D. Keener, R. Keener, W. Lapinski—secretary and treasurer, P. Liebman, D. Linton, J. Litzenberger, V. Lutch, A. Mattei, H. Rall, T. Shepherd—president, W. Sherwin, C. Winterling.

Gymnastic Club

Again the Gymnastic Club put on a show, which as usual, was very good. Mr. Mixie trained boys of all grades to do some very dangerous stunts. No special requirements are needed except that the boys be interested in gymnastics and have average grades in gym. The boys met every other Wednesday night in the Gym to practice.

Tumbling Club

The Tumbling Team under the leadership of Miss Pensom, is composed of junior and senior girls who have gymnastic ability and are interested in tumbling. They meet every other Tuesday after school to prepare for their part in the Gym Show and other assemblies. This year the club was headed by Jane Phillips—president; Eleanor Baudino—vice-president; and Jean Wick—secretary-treasurer.

MEMBERS: R. Arch, E. Baudino, A. Blank, D. Brnilovich, J. Bruce, D. Conley, M. Crow, J. Driscoll, R. Edwards, G. Entinger, B. Ersher, E. Erskine, N. Flanigan, K. Garman, M. A. Green, J. Guy, J. Leaders Club

Under the able guidance of Miss Pensom, the members of the Leaders Club have promoted participation in intramural sports among the Senior High girls. The club is composed of girls from the senior class who have acquired sufficient points in intramurals and a "B" average in gym. The main purpose of this organization is to promote girls' athletics, and to develop better sportsmanship and fair play. Checking roll in gym classes and refereeing games are only two of the many duties performed by the members. The officers chosen were: Carolyn Estep, president; Sue Enkoff, vice-president; and Dee Conley, secretary-treasurer.

Members: R. Arch, E. Boerio, J. Bruce, D. Conley, L. V. Dryer, S. Enkoff, C. Estep, V. Facchini, N. Flanigan, K. Garman, M. A. Green, M. Hartman, J. Harvey, T. Imbrogno, M. Keener, J. Lewis, B. L. Melani, J. Phillips, J. Sprague, M. A. Timura, J. Wassel, A. Wenerstrom, J. Wick.

ATHLETICS

Strength of mind, character and body are the true ideals of athletics. Competition and the spirit of fair play will create not only outstanding athletes but leaders in the challenging world of tomorrow.

The Football Team

This year a small but rugged football team brought to the school the finest record any Baldwin team has ever had. For the first time in the school's history the Highlanders captured the prized Triadic Cup. The squad was coached by Mr. Eureka, and his able assistants, Mr. Weaver and Mr. Schmucker, a newcomer to Baldwin's coaching ranks. Tom Wagner, right end, was the captain.

The team this year was exceptionally light, but overcame this handicap with spirit and ruggedness. With the exception of Snowden, the Highlanders entered every game as the underdog. We salute this year's team.

Won - 5 Tied - 2 Lost - 1

BALDWIN 26 SNOWDEN 6

The Highlanders successfully opened the 1949 season by defeating Snowden. On the second play of the game, Don Lutch ran forty yards for the first Baldwin score. Later in the first period, Lutch scored again on an eight yard plunge. In the second half, Captain Tom Wagner scored twice; once when he dove on his own kickoff behind the enemy goal line, and again when interference was called in the end zone on a pass from Bernie Artman.

BALDWIN 7 BRENTWOOD 7

In the first Triadic Conference game Baldwin and the Brentwood Spartans fought to a 7-7 stalemate. Early in the second period Lutch broke through center for seventeen yards and Baldwin's lone touchdown. Bernie Artman crashed through center for the extra point. Baldwin fought hard but Brentwood scored on a pass play, fifteen seconds before the half. This left both teams still in the running for the Triadic Cup.

BALDWIN 7 CARRICK 6

The Baldwin eleven battled its way to a well earned victory over the Raiders from Carrick. In the first quarter Orrin Benz broke into the clear at midfield and went all the way for the only Highlander touchdown. Fullback Scrappy Ross plunged over for the game's deciding point. Jim Nix's fine kicking was an important factor in the triumph, which netted Baldwin its first Triadic Championship.

BALDWIN 6 HOMESTEAD 6

The Highlanders held the Steelers of Homestead to a 6-6 tie. Baldwin broke the scoring ice in the third period when Don Lutch, speedy halfback, broke loose for seventy-five yards. Scrappy Ross hit off left guard for the extra point but was stopped. Homestead came back with a touchdown in the fourth quarter, but their failure to complete the conversion resulted in a tie.

BALDWIN 7 McKEES ROCKS 0

The Highlanders remained undefeated in their fifth game by scoring over McKees Rocks 7 to 0. A dazzling eighty yard punt return by Don Lutch was the only Baldwin tally. Bernie Artman plunged through the center of the line for the extra point. The muddy condition of the field made further scoring difficult and brilliant play by the Baldwin line kept McKees Rocks in check.

BALDWIN 7 NEW BRIGHTON O

The Highlander gridmen surprised a strong New Brighton team by defeating them 7-0. New Brighton, who was leading the Class A contenders, was knocked out of the running. The Highlanders scored on a pass play off the spread formation. Lutch ran to his right and then passed to Buzzy Reid for the touchdown. Howard Eisengart converted for the extra point. Baldwin's spirited line play held New Brighton scoreless.

BALDWIN 20 ELIZABETH 7

Elizabeth broke off to a 7 point lead in the first half. Benz took the second-half kickoff and ran three yards, then passed to Lutch who raced up the sidelines for ninety yards and Baldwin's first score. Baldwin scored again on a seventy yard pass play from Don Lutch to Captain Tom Wagner. Ross scored in the fourth period by running twelve yards through right tackle. Howard Eisengart converted two out of three times.

BALDWIN 7 DORMONT 13

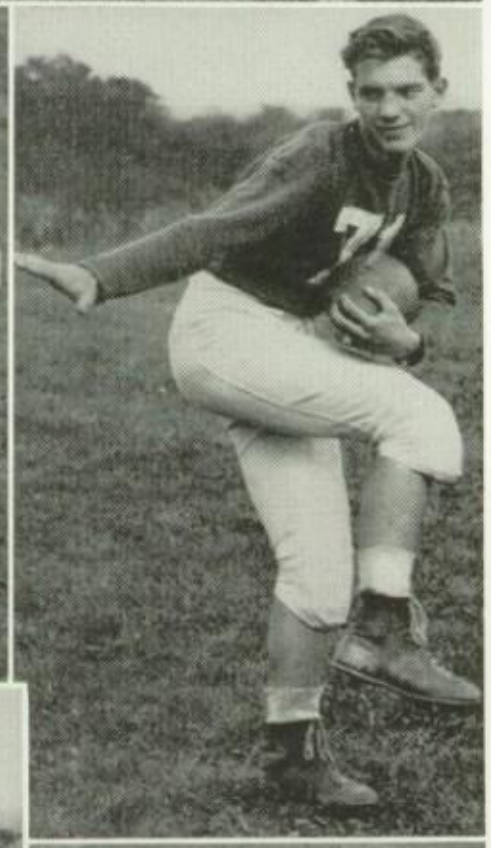
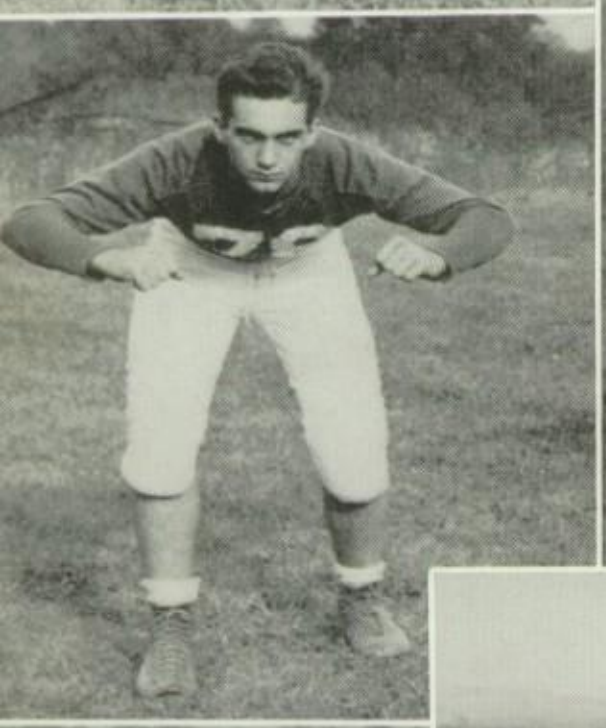
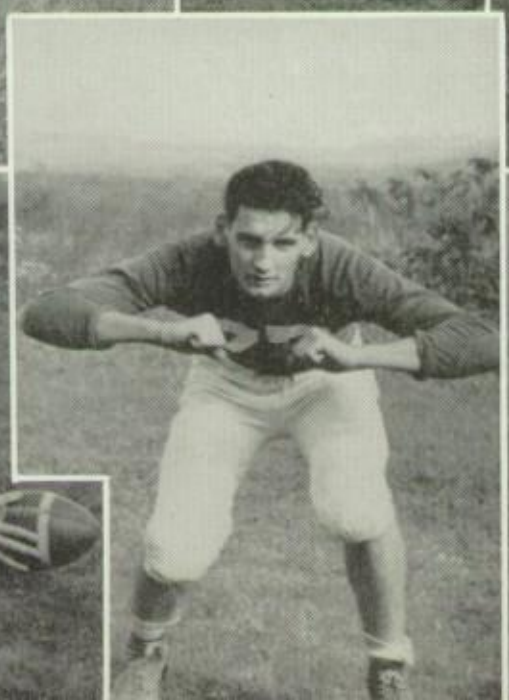
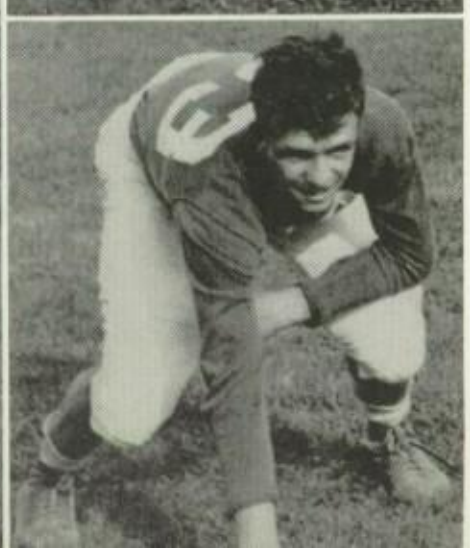
The Highlanders entered this game with sights on an undefeated season. But the final score was 13-7 in favor of Dormont. Lutch scored Baldwin's lone touchdown in the fourth quarter with Eisengart converting the extra point, to give Baldwin the lead. But the Bulldogs of Dormont would not be denied this victory and succeeded in making two touchdowns, thus winning the game.









Tom Wagner Right End

Tom was the captain and spark-plug of the squad. He shined on defense and played an important part in the success of the team. Tom was a member of the ALL W. P. I. A. L. Class A Team.

Dom Mattei

This was Dom's first year on the squad. He always came through with his punting when it was needed. Dom's fine spirit and hard work earned him a position on the team.

Dick Williams Left End

Dick alternated his end position with Buzzy Reid. He displayed ability to block end runs and showed the much needed pep and fight while in the line-up.

Larry Servich Center

In backing up the line Larry held off many enemy drives. His words of encouragement on the field boosted the players' morale. Larry made the McKeesport Daily News All Star Team.

Dick Eisengart Right Guard

In spite of his size, Dick made many important tackles. His blocking ability checked the advancement of the opposition and proved to be an asset to the team.

Dick Hassenpflug Right Tackle

Dick never failed to attend practices and always was anxious to improve his playing ability. He was an outstanding player in offensive and defensive play.

Don Lutch Left Halfback

This was Don's third year on the team. He ran many punts and pass interceptions for long gains. His scrimmage average was 6.6 yards per try. Don received honorable mention in the ALL W. P. I. A. L. Team.

Orrin Benz Right Halfback

Orrin showed exceptional running ability in his first year on the starting line-up. His fifty-one yard dash in the Carrick game gave Baldwin its only touchdown.

Bernie Artman Quarterback

Last year Bernie was an end, but this year he stepped into the all important quarterback spot in which he did very well. Baldwin gained many yards as a result of his timely decisions.

Nick Hartman Left Tackle

This was Nick's second year on the first string. He was great on offense and defense and Baldwin will find it hard to replace him. Nick received honorable mention on the ALL W. P. I. A. L. Team.

Jim Nix Left Guard

Although Jim was small, he made up for this in ruggedness. He did the punting and had an average of thirty-two yards. Jim's hard work and aggressiveness put him on the first team.

Senior Varsity

The "Baldwin Hoopsters" ended this year's season with eight wins, thirteen losses, and a tie for third place in Section Five. Under the able guidance of Coach Jesko the figure eight system was employed. In using this arrangement blocks were set up by taking out the defensive player and allowing the offensive man to cut toward the basket, putting him in position for passes. Mr. Mixie's Junior Varsity and the Junior High Team under the leadership of Mr. Weaver used the same system. Most opponents use the zone defense which necessitates the rapid movement of the ball rather than that of the players. The "Baldwin Quintet" was more efficient against a man to man defense.

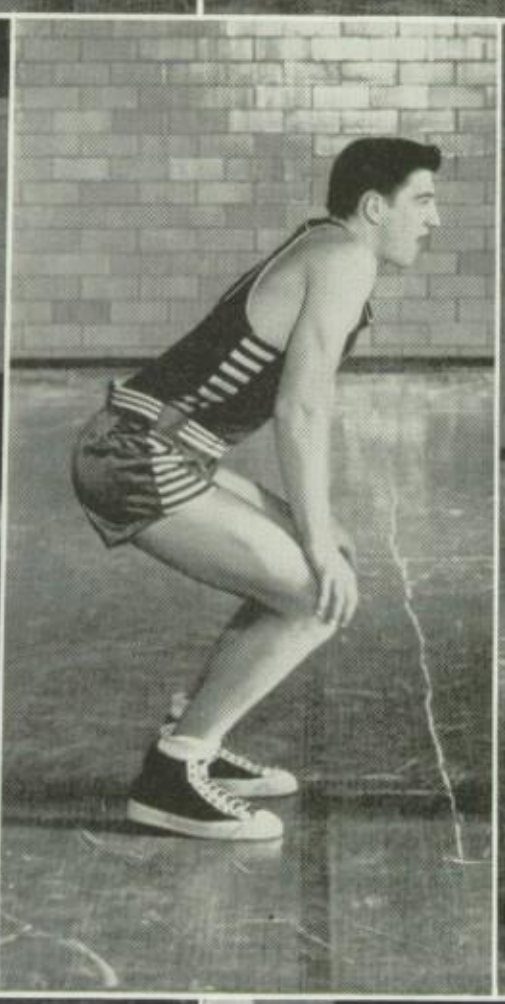
Bob Wilson Forward

This was Bob's second year on the first string. He is a good shot from any position on the floor but specializes in the hook shot. Bob was a very faithful worker and never missed a day of practice.

Bernie Artman Guard

Bernie was co-captain of the team and one of the most unassuming and deceptive players we had. He amazed spectators by his uncanny shots. Bernie was a very capable playmaker and a great asset to the team.



Tom Wagner Center

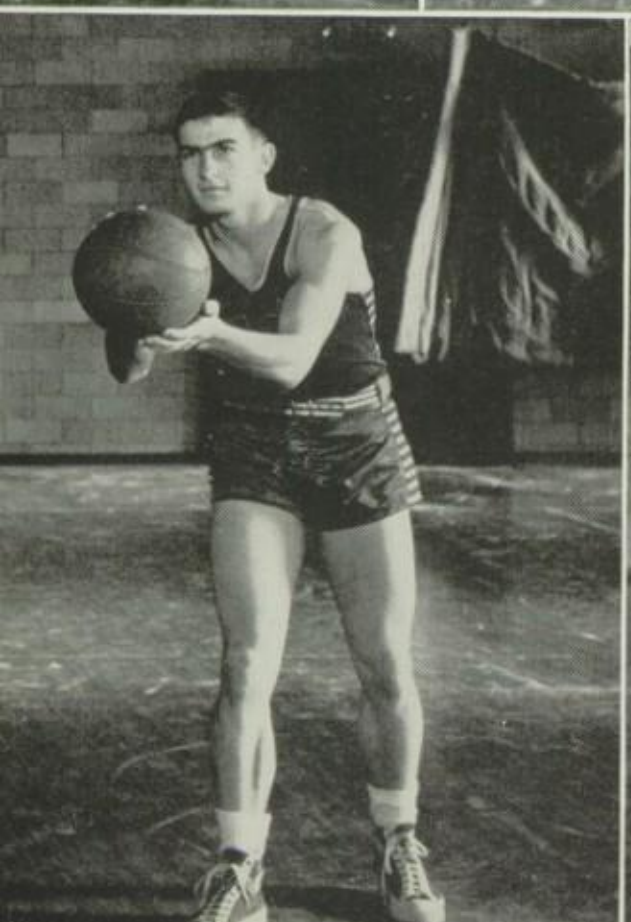
Catching rebounds was one of Honus' outstanding skills. When the game became rough Tom played fast to keep the ball, but seldom lost his temper. He was the hardest worker on the team.

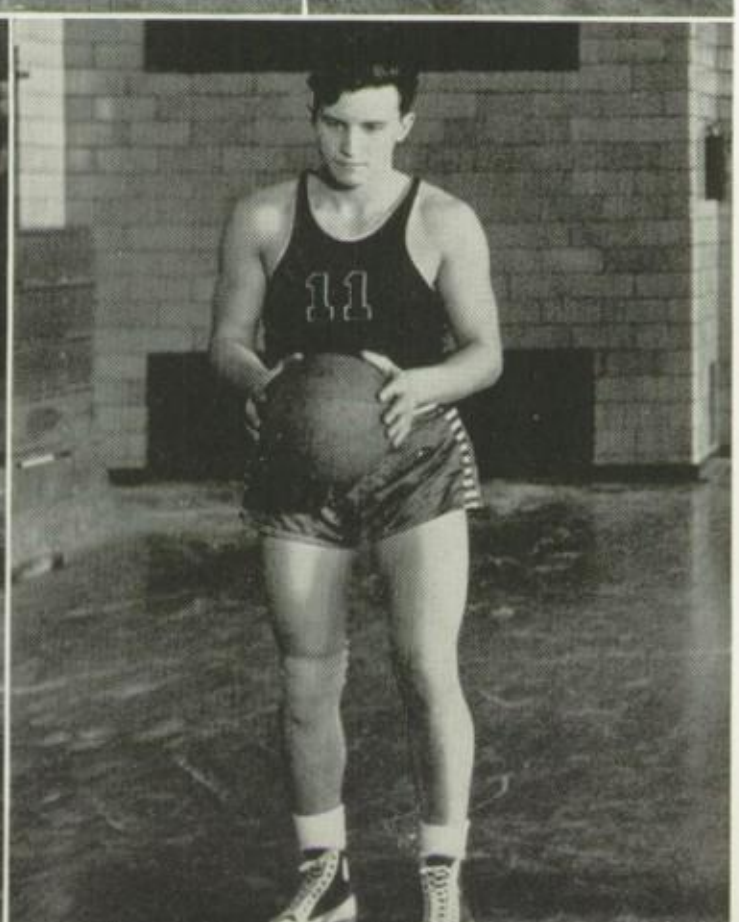
Larry Servich Center

Larry was only a junior this year but played an important part in many of the games. His height was of great advantage in catching rebounds, and his ability to anticipate the opposition's plays caused many a gray hair.

Bob Bowden Guard

Cooperation and clever ball handling gave this newcomer a position on the team. Bob's set shots racked up his scoring average. He was a cat on defense and a very good floor man.





Dom Mattei Forward

Dom was a regular on the squad for three years and was co-captain of this year's starting five. Aggressiveness, hard work, and determination combined to make him a good sportsman on and off the floor.

Bill Bonomi Forward

Bill was the playmaker of the team. He was a good set shot and did particularly well from the corner positions. Bill played well on offense and was a regular on the team for two years.

Golf

The Highlander golf squad, a traditional sectional winner, has always had the best material from which to choose their members. The South Hills Country Club, where the team holds their practice rounds, is the scene of all our home matches. Don Pumphrey, Bob Wilson, and John Walbert, graduating seniors, will not be with us next year.

P. Kostanich, D. Kording, B. Wilson, J. Walbert, J. Knoedler, D. Pumphrey.

Track Team

Mr. Schmucker, a newcomer on our faculty, took over the position as track coach. The team was bolstered by many returning veterans such as: Benz, Lutch, Brown, Wagner, Allwes, and Shepherd. The boys spent many long hours keeping physically fit so that they would be in perfect condition and form for the meets. Those schools competing for honors were: Dormont, Bridgeville, Brentwood and Carrick.

MEMBERS: G. Allwes, P. Allwes, O. Benz, W. Bonomi, R. Bowden, R. Brown, R. Buckley, P. Egede, R. Englert, P. Greenberg, N. Hartman, R. Kreuer, R. Kullman, J. Litzenberger, D. Lutch, G. Nicola, D. Mattei, R. Ross, T. Shepherd, J. Smith, T. Wagner, D. Williams, J. Woodside, W. Yurkovich.

MEMBERS: W. Bonomi, R. Bowden, C. Costa, A. Kaufman, H. Keslar, W. Lapinski, D. Lutch, D. Mattei, H. Mirt, S. Moore, J. Nix, S. Parinella, H. Rall, A. Reid, J. Scrabis, L. Servich, T. Shepherd, J. Simoni, W. Simoni, R. Steel, H. Steiner, G. Tsagaris, T. Wagner, R. Willman, Young—manager, W. Zaleta—manager.

Baseball

Baseball is another popular spring sport. This year's team was again coached by Mr. Campbell. Bonomi, Nix, and Costa were the pitchers and the infield was bolstered by Lutch, Reid, Servich, and J. Simoni. In the outfield were W. Simoni, Shepherd, Wagner, Kaufman, and Mattei. Behind the plate were Parinella and Tsagaris. Our team has obtained very valuable experience from the sandlots around Baldwin.

Varsity Letter Club

The Varsity Letter Club is composed of boys who have earned a letter either in the major or minor sports at Baldwin. They are taught the importance of good sportsmanship and fair play in all of their activities. This club, sponsored by Mr. Jesko, has done a great deal toward making Baldwin's athletes more conscious of their responsibilities.

MEMBERS: G. Allwes, B. Artman—president, O. Benz, W. Bonomi, B. Brown, R. Eisengart, R. Englert, N. Hartman, P. Kostanich, M. Lex, D. Lutch, D. Mattei, J. Nix, D. Pumphrey, A. Reid, R. Ross, L. Servich—vice-president, T. Shepherd, J. Simoni, T. Wagner, R. Wilson—secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Piel Mr. Warren Mr. Datig

Custodians

Our custodians have a real job on their hands keeping the school as clean, warm, and attractive as it is. The student body, the faculty, and the Board of Directors have a school they can be proud of because of the excellent work this staff has done. Replacing lights, waxing floors, and cleaning windows are only a few of their tedious duties. The upkeep of the school is not only a job for the custodians but for the students also.

Cafeteria

We all anxiously await our favorite class of the day, lunch period, but we seldom realize who the hard working people are who prepare these lunches. Pete and his friendly staff can always be depended upon for tasty, hot meals. They arrive promptly at 8:30 every morning and begin their daily job working busily in order to serve the meals on time.

Pete Rugani, Mildred Whitaker, Mildred Pogany, Betty Peach.

Overtime

Our Wee Lads Y Laddies
In The Bonnie Year O' 1975

June 6, 1975—Seems impossible, doesn't it? Today was the 25th reunion of our class of 1950. Twenty-five years ago we all stumbled down that terribly long aisle leading to the stage in order to receive our diplomas—with autographs!!! Faces looked so familiar but we just couldn't seem to place the name! (Hmm . . . memory must be slipping. . .) We had a wonderful lunch—every kind of capsule you could imagine!!! (Still the same old money troubles it seems.) Gee whiz! It sure did wear a person out, but it was nice seeing the old bunch again and finding out how they've done.

What entertainment we had! Why, it was as good as anything they have in New York—well, come to think of it, it was from New York. One of those big name bands from the Waldorf-Astoria played all afternoon, and who do you think were the soloists? Bob Schorr, Bob Wilson, and Frank Chope played a lovely number and then none other than Johnny Albert stepped out and sang one of his recent record hits—accompanied, of course, by Lois Werner—who has certainly made a name for herself in the concert field. Wilma Katz makes a lovely ballerina—she danced one of those numbers from her big Broadway hit. Apologies were made for Ruthie Arch, Gladys Entinger, Mary Ann Timura and Norma Kirsch, who were presenting their tumbling act on television and just couldn't make it on time. Pat Yount took time off from editing her fashion magazine to compile a little souvenir pamphlet with names and addresses for each of us—of course, she couldn't get the low-down on every one—but let's take a peek inside for a few minutes.

Why, here on the first page is: The Wick, Driscoll and Conley Modeling Agency, 155 Park Ave., New York City, N. Y.; The Ambassador Theatre, c/o Charles Tomala and Al Lorenzi (co-owners), 5346 Western Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. James Smith, Brokerage Office, 743 Wall Street, New York, N. Y.; Miss Grace E. Bragg, c/o Falk Clinic, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Pistelli Barber Shop, John Pistelli, Mgr., Brownsville Road, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Harvey School of Charm, c/o Miss Judith L. Harvey, West 43rd St., New York, N. Y.; The Hartman Auto Body Shop, Saw Mill Run Blvd., Pgh., Pa. (ask for Nick!); Nix Sport Togs Shoppe, c/o John Walbert, District Sales Mgr., Chicago, Ill.; The Fugent Motor Co., Chevrolet Dealer, 5th Ave., McKeesport, Pa.; The P. & D. Hardware Store, c/o Wm. Phillips and Wm. Durkin, Brownsville Rd., Pgh., Pa.; Chemical Products Corp., c/o Frank Perzak and Wm. Sherwin; 5433 Wabash St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Over on the second page there's; The Camera Shoppe, Ralph Kreuer Mgr., 5th Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.; The McMillen Women's Apparel Shoppe, 54 E. 33rd Street, New York, N. Y.; The Tea and Coffee Shoppe, c/o Miss Elizabeth Miller, Smithfield St., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Brody Trans-Atlantic Trucking Co., 5001 N. Upland Blvd., Detroit, Mich.; Joy's Beauty Salon, c/o Miss Joy Bruce, Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

This last page looks interesting; Things You Might Like to Know—Irva Lee is now a renowned world traveler and what do you know—Mason Crouch is the new president of Gulf Oil! According to this, Norma Bante, Dot Brnilovich and Arlene McCune own Correspondence Schools, which are really turning out good secretaries; how could they miss with teachers like Ruth Reutzel, Peggy Donovan and Eileen Pahlman? Frankie Schweitzer owns one of the swankiest hotels in Atlantic City now and Janet Benzing is his private secretary. Shervaren's business fell straight through when Joe Simoni built his new grocery store across the street. Marge Schultz has a little diner farther up the road too! Well, getting back to the pamphlet, it seems that Don Wilson is a forest ranger in Siberia!! (Wonder if that could be a misprint??) Jack Motts is keeping the records straight for Orrin Benz's new used car business. Those beautiful costumes for the Ice Capades were all designed by Elaine Boerio and Joan Lersch. Dave Keener is the chief mechanic and engineer for Ford Motors under the management of Ted Sanders. Lou Englert has a swell little farm in Johnstown and Merle Allen owns a prosperous jewelry store with Nancy Vanistendael as his obliging clerk. Broadway society is having a hard time keeping up with Janet Mullet's wonderful parties. (All the food is exclusively prepared by Eleanor Weis and Mary Ellen Klein.) Bob Buckley teaches Spanish now at Tech and Bill Bonomi is the new basketball coach at Baldwin. Speaking of the old Alma Mater, Ann Hutchinson and Bob Bowden (both successful artists) painted a beautiful mural on the Auditorium wall; the question now is—what is it?? Tom Shepherd's track team at Pitt had a very successful season this year. (It seems that poor Tom has been ill!)

Returning to the reunion, Ruth Edwards was there, still trying to decide whether to go to college or not!! Betty Lou Melani couldn't come—she was taking care of the kids for Lois Zill and Betty Ersher. Sally Skinkle brought the car; Janine Sprague and Mary Jane Fauss spent half the afternoon pushing it out of the mud. The school secretary, Shirley Woodhall, announced that Lois Rothhaar and Margie Hartman would be delayed because they hadn't made out their grade sheets for Mr. Williams—yes, that was Dick; he's come all the way from shop teacher to principal! Ralph Bommer brought some pictures of his championship wrestling bout. Every once in a while you could see his manager, Joe McMurray, yell from the corner. Wilbert Dryer and his manager, Dick Stark, were here for a boxing bout, so they dropped in too. Of course, Carolyn Estep was roaming around the halls trying to pick up some information for the yearbook; she guarantees us that we'll have it within the next three years!

All in all we had a very lovely time . . . but everyone left early so they could hear the big game between Dick Hassenpflug's Green Bay Packers and Don Lutch's Los Angeles Rams!!!
